PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE HER MOTION TO REVIEW THE CLERK'S TAXATION OF COSTS

On January 12, 2006, the Clerk filed his Memorandum On Costs (Doc. 162), taxing costs against Plaintiff in this individual employment discrimination case in the amount of $83,765.18. The taxation is based upon Defendants' Motion For Costs and six supplemental filings, each of which contains numerous documents. Based on a review of the docket on January 16, 2006, the mandate of the Court of Appeals has not yet issued. Pursuant to Plaintiff's previous request, filed August 27, 2004 (Doc. 142), the Clerk granted Plaintiff 15 days within which to file a motion to review the Clerk's taxation of costs, or until January 27, 2006.

Due to the present schedule of Plaintiff's trial counsel, Robert Steinberg, and the length of time needed to review the lengthy costs bill and compare it to case records, and to perform updated legal research, Plaintiff respectfully requests an extension of time from January 27, 2007 until February 10, 2006 within which to file Plaintiff's motion to review. Plaintiff's counsel is presently engaged in the processing of several hundred claims in a large class action case that was recently settled in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, which requires ongoing scheduled interviews with and document collection from class members, as well as a number of other active cases in various states and in British Columbia. The interviews are scheduled throughout January and February, limiting the time available to prepare the motion to review.

Respectfully submitted,
